VIII. Barristers' Ball

- A. will be April 13, 2012. Its in Urban Studio downtown 8:00-12:00.
- B. Amira said it will be the best date, right before spring break.

IX. Barristers' Ball funding request for $300 for emergency budget. Dean Klonoff has pledged $1000, but we need a total of $1,500 going into it to be financially safe. Total cost is $4,200.

- A. Other schools tickets are 35-60 dollars, we're aiming for 20-30 dollars. Trying to keep it on the lower end.
- B. Manohar wants to use 300 from the emergency fund to supplement this.
- C. Also considering getting the graduate school to kick in a portion of the money.
- D. Jay, what are we getting beyond the Halloween party.
 - 1. Manohar: the venue is nicer, and we're paying for their food and drinks.
 - 2. Need 150 people.
- E. Motion: 300 for using the money from the emergency fund. Moved and seconded.
 - 1. Discussion: Kya is 150 a reasonable number to expect for the event?
 - (1) We want to sell these early, perhaps next week. We had 190 at Halloween.
 - 2. Amira: good event because off campus, classy bar. Atmosphere semi-formal to formal. Beer, wine and liquer.
 - 3. Joanna: asked about whether people will pay $20 for the event.
 - 4. Robert: concerns about the incentive of the barrister's ball. And concerns that there may not be enough sales to justify the cost.
 - 5. Manohar: we'd have to make up the cost, but 150 is a conservative estimate.
 - 6. Jennifer: can we hedge and see when the last date to book this place is?
 - 7. Manohar: we can't go in halfway.
 - 8. Erin: is there a theme?

9. Amira: black and white theme.
