

CERTIFICATE IN ANIMAL LAW

---

Students may qualify for a Certificate in Animal Law by satisfying the following requirements.

Requirements

- ☐ Administrative Law
- ☐ Animal Law Fundamentals
- ☐ 8 additional credits of approved Animal Law courses (see below)
- ☐ 2 substantial papers on Animal Law topics
- ☐ Maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 in certificate courses
- ☐ Maintain a minimum GPA of 2.70 overall

ANIMAL LAW CERTIFICATE COURSES

Administrative Law	Animal Law Philosophy & Development	Legal Practicum: Animal Law
Advanced Animal Law Clinic+	Animal Law Review+	Moot Court: Animal & Enviro. Advocacy+
Advanced Animal Law Seminar	Animal Rights Law & Jurisprudence	Moot Court: Animal & Enviro. Advocacy Nat.
Advanced Legal Research: Animal Law	Comparative International Animal Law Seminar	Moot Court: NALC Closing Argument
Agricultural Environmental Law Seminar	Crimes Against Animals	Moot Court: NALC Closing National
Animal Cruelty: The Link to Domestic Violence	Companion Animals: Law & Policy	Moot Court: NACL Legislation & Lobbying
Animals in Agriculture: Law & Policy	Equine Law Seminar	Moot Court: NALC Legislation & Lobbying Nat.
Animal Law Clinic+	Externships: Animal Law+	Nonprofit Animal Law Seminar
Animal Law Fundamentals	Independent Study: Animal Law Topic	The Law & Ethics of Animal Testing
Animal Law Litigation	International Wildlife Law	Transactional Approach to Animal Law
Animal Law Legislation, Policy, and Lobbying	Law of the Columbia River Seminar	Wildlife Law

+credit/no credit class. A maximum of three (3) credits from these programs may be used to satisfy the certificate requirements.

NOTE: Animal Law summer school courses also count toward the certificate.