

A Day with the Oregon Court of Appeals

Don't miss this unique opportunity to gain insight into the workings of the Oregon Court of Appeals from the perspective of the judges themselves.

Designed for lawyers who do appellate litigation every day or only infrequently, this seminar will be presented in a format that encourages questions and audience participation. Oregon Court of Appeals judges will talk about every aspect of the appellate process and join attendees for lunch.

This promises to be an interesting, interactive, and informative day. Please join us for this rare chance to meet the judges and network with your colleagues.
