

RICHMOND
School of Law™

The Richmond Law Journal of Law and Technology
2014 Student Law and Technology
Writing Competition

1st Prize:
$1,500

In law school? Interested in technology? Write about a topic at the intersection of law and technology and have a chance to be published and win prizes!

Submissions due by midnight
EST on Friday, October 3, 2014

Up to 3 of the best articles will have a chance to be published within Volume XXI of the Journal!

2nd Prize:
$700

Have questions? Contact the Journal at jolt@richmond.edu and visit the Journal's website at <http://jolt.richmond.edu>.

RICHMOND

Journal of Law and Technology

The Richmond Law Journal of Law and Technology Student Law and Technology Writing Competition

The University of Richmond Journal of Law and Technology is pleased to announce the 2014 biennial Student Law and Technology Writing Competition. This writing competition allows current students from ABA-accredited law schools to compete for cash prizes as well as the opportunity to have their work published in the University of Richmond's Journal of Law and Technology.

The Student Law and Technology Writing Competition includes three separate awards offered to law students who have submitted exemplary papers. The first place article will receive $1,500 and the second place article will receive $700. In addition, one law student from The University of Richmond School of Law will receive the Rick Klau Prize of $300.

In order for an article to be properly considered, it must be submitted according to the guidelines provided below.

Submission Guidelines

- Papers must be written independently
- Only students enrolled in an ABA-accredited law school's J.D. program as of January 1, 2015 may participate.
- The topic of the paper MUST deal with a topic at the intersection of both law and technology.
- Papers that have been submitted to or published by a student publication are not acceptable for submission to the contest.
- Papers submitted must not exceed 30 pages in length and should be formatted as follows: using size 12 Times New Roman font, double-spaced, and 1-inch margins on all sides.
Submissions may not be in .pdf format.
- Citations for the paper must be in compliance with the rules set out in The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation, 19th ed.
- An entry form must be included with each submission, a copy of the entry form is available on the Journal's website at <http://law.richmond.edu/jolt>.

To Submit

All entries for the 2014 Student Law and Technology Writing Competition must be submitted via e-mail by Friday, October 3, 2014 at midnight EST. The e-mail submissions must be sent to jolt@richmond.edu and must include "Student Law and Technology Writing Competition" in the subject line. Please direct all questions to the same e-mail address.

Good Luck!

UNIVERSITY OF RICHMOND
JOURNAL OF LAW AND TECHNOLOGY

The first exclusively online law review.

The 2014 Richmond Journal of Law and Technology
Student Law and Technology Writing Competition

Entry Form

Student Name _____

Essay/Article Title _____

Student Address _____

Telephone Number _____

Email Address _____

Law School _____

Law School Address _____

Certified by:

(Signature of Entrant)

(Printed Name of Entrant)

Submission of this cover form and essay constitutes an eligible entry for the The Richmond Law Journal of Law and Technology Writing Competition with the Rick Klau Prize. Submission constitutes agreement to abide by the decision of the University of Richmond Journal of Law and Technology's Board on any question raised in connection with the conduct of the contest and the award of prizes.

Please email a copy of the essay/article, and entry form by Friday, October 3, 2014 at midnight EST to:

jolt@richmond.edu

Subject Line: "Student Law and Technology Writing Competition"