Looking Back and Moving Forward: Copyright's Biggest Issues

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2011 • 12:00 P.M. • THE GOVERNOR HOTEL, BILLIARD ROOM • 614 S.W. 11TH AVENUE, PORTLAND

Join Marybeth Peters for a look back at the challenges copyright law has confronted, from photocopying to cable and satellite television, and the challenges it continues to confront, from worldwide communications networks to mass digitization projects undertaken by Google. Ms. Peters will also discuss the critical need for copyright law to address the orphan works problem and update the exceptions to the rights of copyright owners. 1.0 general Oregon and Washington MCLE credit pending.

Marybeth Peters

served as the United States Register of Copyrights from 1994 until 2010. A frequent speaker on copyright issues, Ms. Peters has received numerous awards for her work as Register of Copyrights.
