

Lydia Pallas Loren, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY LAW: CASES AND MATERIALS
Semaphore Press (Version 2.2) 2011, 779 pages
(co-authored with Joseph S. Miller)

This electronic casebook provides engaging and challenging coverage of all the major types of intellectual property law: trade secret, patent, copyright, and trademark law. It includes an introductory chapter which explores the basic policies animating intellectual property through the lens of the common law tort of misappropriation. It closes with a chapter on the right of publicity. The authors, veteran teachers of an intellectual property law survey course, offer a comprehensive Teacher's Manual on request. The book is published by Semaphore Press, a web-based publishing company that has pioneered a new approach to distributing digital casebooks (in pdf form) to students.
