

Elaine E. Sutherland, LAW MAKING AND THE SCOTTISH PARLIAMENT: THE EARLY YEARS
Edinburgh University Press 2011, 352 pages
(co-edited with Kay E. Goodall, Gavin F.M. Little and Fraser P. Davidson)

The first critical analysis of legislative developments in the areas of law and policy devoted to the Scottish Parliament. It begins with a brief account of the devolution settlement and then summarizes emerging themes in subsequent chapters. Each following chapter is dedicated to a specific area of the law and is written by an acknowledged expert in the field, providing critical evaluation of the Scottish Parliament, highlighting what it has achieved, what it has failed to do, and what might be done in the future.
