

CERTIFICATE IN ENVIRONMENTAL/NATURAL RESOURCES LAW

Students qualify for a Certificate in general Environmental and Natural Resources Law by satisfying the following requirements.

Administrative Law

Environmental Law

8 additional credits of approved Environmental and Natural Resources (see below)

2 substantial papers on Environmental or Natural Resources topics

Maintain a minimum GPA of 2.70

For complete information regarding the details for completing the necessary requirements for the general Environmental and Natural Resources Law certificate or the specialization in Animal Law see the What's What, Page 17.

ENVIRONMENTAL/NATURAL RESOURCES CERTIFICATE COURSES

Administrative Law

Agricultural Environmental Law Seminar

Animal Law

Clean Air Act

Clean Air Act Seminar

Clean Water Act

Climate Change

Cultural Resources Protection Seminar

Earthrise Ethics +

Earthrise Clinic +

Energy Law

Environmental Advanced Topic Seminar

Environmental Decision Making

Environmental Enforcement

Environmental Justice Seminar

Environmental Justice Survey

Environmental Law

Environmental Law Review

Environmental Liability Insurance Seminar

Environmental Litigation

Environmental Practice Seminar: Business Transactions

Environmental Trading and Banking Seminar

Externships: Environmental +

Forest Law and Policy

Graduate (LL.M.) Environmental Law Seminar

Hazardous Waste Law

Individual Research (Env.)

International Environmental Law

International Environmental Law Clinic +

International Trade and Environment

Internship: Environmental Justice/Civil Rights +

Internship: Environmental/Nat Resources +

Internship: Environmental Prosecution +

Internship: Sustainability +

Internship: Western Res. Legal Center (WRLC) +

Internship: WRLC- advanced +

Land Use Planning

Land Use Seminar

Law, Science and Environment Seminar

National Environmental Negotiation Competition +

Native American Natural Resources Law

Natural Resources Law

Northwest Energy Law

Ocean & Coastal Law

Pacific Salmon Law Seminar

Public Lands & resources Law

Public Trust Seminar

Renewable Energy Law and Policy Seminar

Renewable Energy Project Finance Seminar

Sustainable Food and Agriculture Law Seminar

Sustainability Law and Business Seminar

Torts II (Toxics)

Water Law

Water Law and Policy Seminar

Wildlife Law

NOTE: Environmental Law summer school classes also count toward the certificate.

+credit/no credit class. A maximum of three (3) credits from these programs may be used to satisfy certificate