

Introductory Course in Access to Justice

Pursuant to MCLE Rule 3.3(b), all members reporting CLE credits for the first time must complete a three-credit hour introductory course in access to justice*. The introductory courses in access to justice that are currently available are listed below.

- OSB CLE Seminars programs--(Visit www.osbar.org/cle/ to watch on your computer or order CD/DVD product.)
 - Barriers to Accessing Legal Services, June 2013
 - Race Class and Gender, June 2011.
- Professional Liability Fund programs--(Contact the PLF at 503-639-6911 for more information.)
 - Introductory access to justice courses from the 2012, 2013 and 2014 Learning the Ropes programs.
- Oregon Law Institute program—(Contact the OLI at 503-768-6780 for more information.)
 - Is Justice Accessible If Speech May Not Be Free?, November 2012
 - Kids for Cash, November 2014

In future reporting periods, any access to justice CLE programs may be used. It's only in the first reporting period that you specifically need an introductory course.

*NOTE: If you are using a Comity Certificate of MCLE Compliance from Washington, Idaho or Utah to comply with your Oregon MCLE requirement, you are not required to complete the introductory course in access to justice.
