

Animal Law Summer Program 2015 Courses

Lewis & Clark Law School
Portland, Oregon

CENTER FOR ANIMAL LAW
STUDIES
AT LEWIS & CLARK
IN COLLABORATION WITH THE
ANIMAL LEGAL DEFENSE FUND

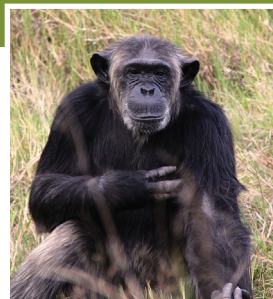

Crimes Against Animals

JUNE 2 – JUNE 15

2 credits

Lora Dunn, J.D.

ALDF Criminal Justice Program Staff Attorney

Companion Animals: Law and Policy

JUNE 16 – JUNE 29

2 credits

Claire Howe J.D., LL.M.

Portland Program Director, HEART

The Law of Humane Science

ONLINE COURSE: JULY 13 – JULY 24

2 credits

Paul Locke, J.D., DrPH

Associate Professor

Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

Animal Rights Law and Jurisprudence

JULY 14 – JULY 24

2 credits

Steven Wise, J.D.

President of the Center for the Expansion of Fundamental Rights and Director of the Nonhuman Rights Project

Animal Law: Policy Influences Through Legislation, Lobbying, and Litigation

JULY 28 – AUGUST 7, WASHINGTON, D.C.

2 credits

Nancy Perry, J.D.

Senior Vice President

Government Relations, ASPCA

All courses are open to both U.S. and international law students, attorneys, paralegals, and auditors. Limited on-campus housing may be available.

To register and for further course information, please visit
go.lclark.edu/animal-law-summer-program

Educating the Next Generation of Animal Law Attorneys

10015 S.W. Terwilliger Blvd., Portland, Oregon 97219 • law.lclark.edu