

Expertise and Curriculum to Enhance Your Environmental Law Career

Lewis & Clark Law School's distance-learning LLM in Environmental, Natural Resources, and Energy Law offers exceptional preparation for a career in environmental law. Our environmental law program is consistently top-ranked, and receives high marks from graduates for its breadth, depth, and educational excellence.

All courses in the distance-learning LLM are:

- Offered 100% online in a flexible format.
- Engaging, and include online meetings with professors and classmates.
- Taught by many of the same professors who teach in our residential program.

With this degree, you will gain an excellent foundation for practicing, teaching, or policy-making in the environmental, natural resources, and energy law field. Our graduates have gone on to work in fulfilling roles around the world including careers in private practice and at the Environmental Defense Center, Alaska Department of Law, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration and more.

A few courses included in this program:

- Climate Change
- Environmental Law
- Energy Law
- Wildlife Law
