

Voices for Justice

The Details

The sixth annual Voices for Justice will be held Wednesday, September 23, 2020 virtually. The event will celebrate twenty years of victims' advocacy led by survivors of crime and the people who fight for their rights, from attorneys and advocates to volunteers and community partners. Guests from across the United States will hear from celebrated speaker, actress and author Reema Zaman, have access to our first-ever Online Auction, and join in celebrating the victims' rights community nationally in advancing victims' rights in a moment dedicated toward Celebrating our Community. The evening will culminate in a Moment of Giving, where guests will pledge financial support for protecting, enforcing and advancing victims' rights through the National Crime Victim Law Institute.

Voices for Justice

An Evening of Inspiration

The Voices for Justice celebration will bring together hundreds of the community's most devoted members working to eliminate inequality in the justice system. These community leaders are board members, attorneys from area law firms, government officials, business owners, law students, advocates and allies.

Celebrate Our Community

Join us as a Sponsor as we highlight national successes in advancing victims' rights through a montage recognizing community-submitted nominations of those who have made outstanding contributions, ensuring that our justice system honors victims' voices.

Investing in Justice

The National Crime Victim Law Institute targets three main areas for crime victim rights. This past year, NCVLI worked in all 50 states and the District of Columbia through training, technical assistance and partnerships. Your support aids NCVLI in these main areas:

Education: 250+ hours spent training 2,300+ professionals across the US

Litigation: 180 Legal Technical Assistance Responses in 26 jurisdictions

Resources: New publications added to our Post-Conviction Rights Toolkit, new webpages for survivors in the military and their families, and more.
