

the campaign for lewis & clark law school

What the world needs most is what we do best. And what we do next depends on you!

Support Outstanding Faculty

Faculty are the foundation of a Lewis & Clark Law School education. Many of our faculty are well known nationally for their expertise in their particular area of law. All of our faculty are excellent scholars, lawyers, teachers, and mentors. Our faculty's knowledge, diligence in both research and teaching, and heartfelt commitment to the success of every law student make our law school the unique place it is. Supporting faculty through an endowed chair, professorship, or faculty scholar position provides a transformational impact for generations.

YOUR IMPACT

Your campaign gift to the law school will:

Establish a legacy of excellence. An endowed position is one of the most prestigious gifts a donor can make. The name of the position is included in all published articles and presentations of the faculty member throughout their career. Thus, an endowed position acts as a legacy gift, associating the donor name with cutting-edge legal research, analysis, and teaching in perpetuity.

Elevate the status of the law school. An endowed faculty position gives the law school greater national peer recognition, enabling us to attract and retain the best teachers and legal minds in the country.

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

Endowed Chair An endowed chair, the highest academic honor that can be bestowed on a faculty member, can be named for any discipline of interest to the donor—including the deanship, environmental law, criminal law, constitutional law, and business law.

You can endow a chair with a gift of $2 million or more for existing positions or $3 million or more for new positions.

Endowed Professorship An endowed professorship is the second-highest academic honor that can be bestowed on a faculty member and can be named to any discipline or department currently in operation at the institution. You can name an endowed professorship with a gift of $1 million or more.

Endowed Faculty Scholar An endowed faculty scholarship position recognizes a faculty member for their excellence in teaching. You can name an endowed faculty scholar with a gift of $500,000 or more.

Give to an existing endowed chair, professorship, faculty scholar Over the years, alumni and friends created professorships in honor of a colleague, faculty member or loved one. Donors may add their support with a gift of any amount.
