

Criminal Justice Reform Clinic Application Process

Participation in the 2023-2024 Criminal Justice Reform Clinic (CJRC or Clinic) is limited to 5-7 students.

Please read the 2023-2024 CJRC course description before submitting your application: https://law.lclark.edu/courses/catalog/law_758.php

Due to the enrollment limitation, we have instituted an application process. There may also be interviews. If you would like to apply, please submit the following information to the Registrar's Office in one PDF document:

- a statement of interest explaining why you want to participate in the Clinic; this should include any specific criminal justice areas of interest you have (if you are open to everything, that is ok);
- a writing sample (no longer than 5 pages);
- a resume;
- name of your 1L Lawyering Professor;
- a list of past or current legal internship, externship or volunteer positions including any upcoming summer or school year (2023/2024) position/s if you already have one (if not, that is ok); and
- one reference.

Deadline

Please submit the above application materials to the Registrar's office no later than 9am Wednesday, March 29, 2023 (during spring break).
