ONLINE ADVANCED DEGREES IN ANIMAL LAW

EMPOWERING CHANGE FOR A COMPASSIONATE FUTURE

THE WORLD'S LEADER IN ANIMAL LAW

At Lewis & Clark Law School, we take immense pride in our rich history as the world's leader in animal law education. Our animal law advanced degree program is now offered fully online, with MSL and LLM degree options, and is dedicated to training passionate advocates who strive for a brighter future for all animals.

If you're an ambitious professional seeking the best animal law education, comprehensive curriculum, instruction by renowned faculty, and practical experience – our animal law advanced degrees are for you. Our 80 alumni from over 30 countries are active changemakers thanks to their innovative degree from our unparalleled program.

Join the next generation of animal law advocates.

Animal Law LLM Program

- For both U.S. and international law school graduates
- Entirely online and asynchronous
- This program prepares lawyers for advancement in their career path, including specialized practice; policy development, implementation, or enforcement; scholarship or teaching; advocacy; and executive leadership.

Our commitment is to educate and train students to become leading animal law lawyers and experts in the field.

Animal Law MSL Program

- For both U.S. and international bachelor's degree holders
- Entirely online and asynchronous
- This program equips non-lawyers who want to focus on animal law in advocacy, academia, research, public policy, and more. It provides non-lawyers with a foundational background in animal law and prepares them to advocate for animals.

Our commitment is to educate and train students to become leaders in animal law and experts in the field.

Scholarships

CALS is excited to extend full and partial scholarships for our online Animal Law programs. These scholarships stem from contributions we receive from dedicated donors who share our commitment to training advocates to advance legal protections for animals.

Online Experience

You benefit from our world-renowned faculty, cutting-edge courses, and career-driven guidance. Graduate from our part-time program in as few as 18 months and start making a difference for animals.

CALS is a self-funded Center within Lewis & Clark College of Law operating under the Lewis & Clark College 501(c)(3) tax exemption, and is only able to provide these educational opportunities through donations, grants, and legacy giving.
