ELECTION NOMINATION FORM

Position: Admissions Committee Representative

Name: Joshua Schroeder

Hometown: Clovis, CA

Goals: As an Admissions Committee Representative I would hope to get some more artists here. I am also dedicated to diversity initiatives. Lastly I'd be looking out for people who bring the right kind of "spirit" to law school - NOT people who only care about money and protecting their egos.

My friends would describe me as . . .

An artist and free spirit. Most of them are shocked that I decided to go to law school because it requires me to contain myself - which can be hard. To be honest, many of my friends didn't know my argumentative/logical side because my music/performer side was so prevalent before law school.
PS - I love to laugh.

I came to Lewis & Clark Law School because . . .

I came to law school to be empowered and to get a job. I came to Lewis & Clark because it is progressive, beautiful and has an emphasis on public interest law. It was a healthy decision to come to L&C - I imagine many law schools do not have the same kind of culture to it.

On my free days, I enjoy . . .

Running long distance, writing songs, eating good food and getting into difficult philosophical discussions.
