ELECTION NOMINATION FORM

Position: Diversity Committee Representative

Name: Gail K. Kawakami-Schwarber

Hometown: Fairbanks, AK (resident) & Hilo, HI (born & raised)

Goals: To enrich our learning environment in our Law School by utilizing my background in counseling, education and psychology to perpetuate a diverse student population. Advocating for the entry of under-represented populations into the legal profession.

My friends would describe me as . . .

adventurous or crazy, organized or obsessive with a wacky sense of humor. They also describe me as dependable, generous, and empathetic.

I came to Lewis & Clark Law School because . . .

the campus is tucked in a forest and besides it's an awesome law school. It is in a city that retains and respects our environment. Our Law School is committed to promoting diversity and constantly striving to be the best. I wanted to be a part of this community.

On my free days, I enjoy . . .

listening to a variety of music, especially Hawaiian music, strolling along the Willamette River looking for eagles, and savoring a real meal.
