Program Design:

In cooperation with CET, Lewis & Clark offers a semester or a full-year program at the Chinese Language Training Center on the campus of Beijing Institute of Education. Study focuses on language immersion in cultural, literary, historical and socio-political contexts. Housing is in college dormitories with an opportunity to room with host nationals. Independent study trips to other sites in China, as well as excursions to historical sites of interest in and near Beijing enhance the students' understanding of life in contemporary China.

Full Year Participation:

If you are participating for a full year in China, the January Term in Beijing is mandatory. This is an intensive program for intermediate and advanced students, which prepares students to continue to either Beijing or Harbin after fall participation at either Guilin or Beijing.

Requirements Fulfilled:

Fulfills the overseas study requirement for the East Asian Studies major, and the overseas requirement for the Foreign Language major (with Chinese as primary language), and the Chinese minor.
