SCHEDULE

Communicating Across Cultures and Genders

presented by Nina Meierding

3.25 Access to Justice Credits

8:15 LATE REGISTRATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF MATERIALS

8:45–10:15 Communicating Across Cultures

A discussion of direct and indirect communication (high and low context), cross talking and overlapping speech, ritual opposition, and how people process information and view time (monochronic and polychronic).

10:15–10:30 BREAK

10:30–12:00 I Can't Believe You Said That!—
Gender Differences in Communication

This session explores the difference between rapport and report talk and how it impacts the goal of the conversation, how humor does not always “translate” across genders (or cultures), and how genders may validate differently. We will also examine how power is viewed and used.

12:00 ADJOURN

NINA MEIERDING, M.S., J.D., is an expert in negotiation and has taught thousands of lawyers worldwide how to be better negotiators. She was the Director and Senior Mediator at the Mediation Center in Ventura, California from 1985–2007 where she mediated over 4,000 disputes. She is an adjunct professor at Pepperdine University School of Law and Southern Methodist University, and has taught communication, mediation, and culture seminars in England, Ireland, Sweden, Scotland, India, the Netherlands, and throughout the U.S. Nina has served as the President of the Academy of Family Mediators (AFM) and on the board of directors of the Association for Conflict Resolution (ACR). Nina is the recipient of ACR's 2005 John Haynes Award for distinguished service to the field of dispute resolution.

Drug Abuse Trends and Policies: Mandatory Child Abuse Reporting

1 Child Abuse Reporting Credit

4:05–5:05

Drug Abuse Trends and Policies

This presentation will cover the basics of the Oregon child abuse and neglect reporting law for mandatory reporters, which includes all lawyers. It will also focus on an area of child abuse and neglect that drives most child dependency cases, namely parental substance abuse. Drug abuse trends, both Oregon and nationally, will be explored, as well as a very brief overview of substance abuse brain science and effective modes of treatment.

– Rob Bovett, District Attorney for Lincoln County
